

WHAT DO I DO NOW?

When you're uncertain on how best to respond to a business situation, this chart will help you figure out what your next step of action is. Is it time to jump in without another doubt, to decline, to demand more, or to accept the situation for what it is?

AT THIS RATE...

Setting the right price for your offerings might be one of the hardest things an entrepreneur ever has to do, which is why I thought you wouldn't mind some help.

Use this chart to establish whether the rate you have in mind is just right, or whether you need to change it.

'TIS THE SEASON

I love planning ahead, but I sometimes struggle with figuring out when's the best time to plan for this or that. This chart will help you pinpoint which season's best for whatever you have planned.

IF NOT NOW, WHEN?

This chart can work with any timeframe as long as you've already established one: 'Should I do X at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of the day?' 'Should I do Y at the beginning, in the middle, or near the end of the month?' 'Should I do Z during the first month, the second month, or the third month of the quarter/season?'
